ASIC lifts pause on ETMFs, clears way for MA1

Monash Absolute Investment Company Limited (MA1) announced in August 2019 the intention to propose a restructure of the LIC to an Exchange Traded Managed Fund (ETMF). The restructure to an open-end fund would enable unitholders to buy and sell at a price around the NTA which would seek to address the large discount that MA1 shares have been trading at.

The month before the announcement, ASIC had placed an immediate pause on the admission of ETMFs with internal market makers while it undertook a review of the market. On Wednesday 11 December the pause was lifted which will allow fund managers to list new Active ETFs. In a market update, MA1 stated that "The Board and Management are proceeding on the proposed restructure and will work with ASIC to ensure that our proposal is compliant with ASIC's new guidance". The full details of the proposed plan have yet to be provided to shareholders and will require shareholder approval before a restructure is executed.

URB takeover approved

Following on from the shareholder approval received on 6 December, 360 Capital Total Return Fund's (TOT) takeover of URB Investments Limited (URB) has been approved by the Federal Court of Australia.

As a result, URB shares were suspended from trading on ASX from the close of trading 11 December and the new TOT securities commenced trading on Thursday 12 December. The Scheme is expected to be implemented on Friday 20 December.

Access to Asia at a discount

The 3 Asian equity focused LICs in the report were trading at an average pre-tax NTA discount of 9.5% as at the end of November, tightening in from September's 16.2% average discount. Platinum Asia Investments Limited's (PAI) pre-tax NTA (incl. net dividends) return for the 12 months ending September outperformed the benchmark 1.4% to 1.1%. Yet the share price return was down 18.1% over this period, a differential of 19.6% which is the largest margin amongst all LIC/LITs in the report.
